SEVERE STORMS ON THE OCEAN. ARRIVAL OF FOUR OVERDUE STEAMSHIPS - THE DIS COMFORTS OF TWO WEEKS AT SEA.

Five more of the overdue European steamships arrived here yesterday. Much anxiety had been felt for the safety of the Ville de Marseilles, which sailed from Hayre October 13, but she atrived at her pier yesterday meraing nine days overdue. Her voyage was an exceedingly bolsterous one, but no durange to the vessel was caused. Three valuable Norman stallions, owned by William W. Singerly, proprietor of the Philodelphia Record, were killed by the force of the waves which broke over the vessel. From November 18 to November 27 the Ville de Marseilles emonnaired continuous gales from northwest to northeast, accompanied by head and cross seas which had mountain high. The huge waves would rise in a mass over the bows and break over the sain, completely submerging her.

companied by head and cross season at man mass over the bows and break over the sain, completely submerging her.

The Jan Breidel arrived from Antwerp after a most tempesthous voyage of twenty-three days, being time days overdue. On November 20 a heavy gale was encountered from the southwest, lasting several days and causing a running high sea, in the course of which two life-boats were tora from the dayis and lost. On November 24 a severe harricane sprung up from the west-northwest, lasting four hours, and making the sea a mass of seething four hours, and making the sea a mass of seething four hours, and making the sea a mass of seething four hours, and making the sea a mass of seething four hours, and making the sea a mass of seething four hours, and making the sea a mass of seething four hours, and making the sea a mass of seething four hours, and making the sea a mass of seething four hours, and other wrecked stuff was passed.

The Spain, which left Liverpool November 17, and was three days overdue, also arrived yesterday. Her experience was the same as that of the other vessels. On Saturday last, in latitude 46°38' north, longitude 42°40' west, she exchanged signals with the steamship tholand, which sailed from London November 13, and was due here November 25. The Holland will prebably reach port to-motrow, as she appeared not to be disabled.

The State of Forida, from Glasgow November 17, arrived yesterday. She had more favorable weather than the others.

The following vessels are expected to arrive at any hour: The Holland, from London, and the Voimer, from Antwerp, due November 25; the Victoria, from London, Rialto, from Hull, Freja, from Hamburg, due last Sunday; Erin, from Liverpool, due Monday; Abyssimi and Scythia, from Liverpool, due Monday; Abyssimi and arriving nutil yesterday, the National Line will COOPERATION AT THE FIVE POINTS. A GEOCERY STORE TO BE OPENED SOON IN PARK-ST .- HOW THE WORK OF THE CENTRAL COOP-ERATIVE BOARD IS ADVANCING.

A grocery store will be opened in the Five Points next week, which is to be conducted upon the principle of cooperation. The building No. 94 Parkst., between Baxier and Mulberry-sts., has been rented for the purpose, and money to continue the experiment for a year has been subscribed by friends of cooperation. The back room, usually designated as a wine-room, will be fitted up as a coffee and milk room. In the store itself only goods of the best quality will be sold, at prices not varying greatly from the usual market prices in the neighborhood. Any person may share in the profits of the establishment by becoming a member by the payment of $25 in monthly instalments of $1. Checks will be given when goods are purchased entiding the bearers m monthly instalments of $1. Checks will be given when goods are purchased entitling the beaters to a share of the profits. A distinction will be made between those who are members of the association and those who are not. The purpose of those who have aided in the starting of the store is to prove to workmen that money may be saved by the cooperative system. The movement has been begun in the Five Points district for this reason, and every person who is convinced there of the profitableness of the enterprise, it is behaved, will be a missionary in the cause of cooperation. No credit will be given for goods.

in the cause of cooperation. No credit will be given for goods.

A meeting of subscribers to the New-York society was held Wednesday evening for the purpose of adopting by-laws, and of authorizing the necessary legal steps to seems the incorporation of the society. A code of rules has been adopted by the Central Cooperative Board, which will be turnised to those who may desire information on the subject. Monday evening a public meeting was held at New-ark to torward the organization of a society there.

The office of the New-York company is at room No. 25 Cooper Institute; it will be open day and evening, and persons who desire information on the subject of cooperation are invited to call there. For the present this enterprise will be conducted as a trust until a sufficient number of families has become members of the New-York society and patrons of its store to justify its transfer to the society. A meeting was held Thursday evening at New-Brunswick, N. J., for the purpose of establishing a society there. Next week a conference will be held in Brooklyn for the same purpose. Letters have been received in the last week from persons who desire to organize societies in many of the Middle and Western States.

"LORD COURTENAY" REMANDED. C. Pelham Cinton, alias "Lord Courtenay," was again before Jastice Smith, at the Jefferson Market Police Court, yesterday afterneon, and was remained to the custody of Detective Bradford, to await the arrival of a warrant for his arrest, which is on the way from Sait Lake City.

The following letter received at the Jefferson Market Court yesterday:

Newport, R. I., Dec. 2, 1880.

**Soon after two trains, going in opposite directions, had passed the station at Minecia, L. I., I needay

To the Chief of Police at Jefferson Market Court.

Sin: From the description of the man calling himself Pelham Clinton in the newspapers, he is doubless the same "cass" who, about this time last year, was in Ricamond, Va., anner the name of Robert Raymond Arandel. He has been under various masses, such as Charles Claude Montague Bertie, under which name you may get his photograph in the uniform of the 4th Dragon Guards from the Cutef of Police, Gaiveston, Texas. He has been under the name of Denison, Courtenay and some score of others. Find a gentleman in New-York, Mr. Tracy, who was superintendent of the Telephone Company in Richmond; he can, if it is the man, I think, at once recognise and identify Arundel and C. C. M. Bertie. I believe he is wanted much in Montreat, where, it think, there is $1,000 dollars effected for him. Yours taithfully, To the Chief of Police at Jefferson Market Court.

James P. Neal confronted the prisoner before the magistrate and said that he met him in 1875, at Portland, Me., where he was stopping at the Faimouth Hotel, the then went under the name of Licutenant Dennison, of the Rovai Navy. During his stay in Portland he was accompanied by a friend named Park, who was apparently educated and accomplished, white Deunison was noted for his tack of education and bad manners. He next went to Boston, where he succeeded in swinding two men out of about $1.000, which he borrowed on the pica of remittances not arriving. The British Consai at Portland refused to vouch for him, and believed him to be an impostor.

ish Consulat Portland reliased to voted for him, and believed him to be an impostor.

The Justice asked Mr. Neal if he remembered the prisoner, and upon his answering in the affirmative, Chiton turned to him, and said: "What difference does it make whether he remembers me or not, as long as I paid my debts while with him it" Justice Smith then told him to hold no conversation and he was led away.

BEHEADED BY AN ELEVATOR.

William Dwyer, a laborer employed on the elevator Oswego, at the loot of West Tenth-sti, met with a frightful death yesterday. The elevator was about to unload a canal boat loaded with grain that lay alongside, and the iron spout, known as the "leg" of the elevator, had been brought out at an angle from the elevator for the purpose. Dwyer, who was stationed on one of its upper floors, thirty feet or more from the deck, waited for the machinery to begin to move. Impatient at the delay, he at last put out his head between the wall of the elevator and the "leg" to ascertain the cause. At this moment the machinery was started and the "leg" moving inward caught Dwyer's head and elipped it off in an instant. Dwyer was twenty-six years old, unmarried, and had been in the country about six months. He lived at Columbia and Warren-sts., Brocklyn.

STRUGGLING WITH A CAT IN THE DARK. STRUGGLING WITH A CAT IN THE DARK. Henry Winant, of Rienmond Valley, S. I., one night recently heard a strange noise in the cellar of this house. Procuring a lamp, he started to learn the cause. On reaching the bottom of the cellar stairs he discovered a large cat, with glaring eyes. The animal attacked Mr. Winant with its teeth and claws and in the straggle the lamp-chimney was brosen and the light extinguished. Finally Mr. Winant got hold of a bar of from, with which he dispatched the ferocious animal. In the struggle, he received severe scratches and his clothing was forn. The animal had unosually large eyes and weighed twenty-three pounds. For months it was seen running about the woods near Mr. Winant's house, and never fuled to attack a human being when opportunity offered.

SUFFOCATED IN HIS HOUSE.

James De Witt, who, while engaged as brakeman on a freight train of the Long Island Rairroad, was severely injured by the train being thrown from the track at Wniteport, about ten days ago, met with a shocking death Wednesday while still confined to his house in Suffolk County from hisanjures. While alone in the house, in a helpicss condition, the building caught fire from some unknown cause, and before assistance could reach him he was suffocated. His body was found lying in the hall, whither he had managed to drag himself in his efforts to escape.

THE IRISH LAND QUESTION. A meeting of the New-York Ladies' Land League was held last evening at Cooper Institute. Mrs. Parnell presided, and read several extracts from foreign and American journals on the Irish land question. James O'Brien made a brief address, in which he urged Irish women to read the newspapers and make themselves intelligent on Irish affairs. He make themselves intelligent on 17°sh affairs. He said that the efforts being made by the Eurlish authorities to brand Mr. Parnell and others cugazed in the Land League movement as conspirators would be a great help to the cause in bringing it prominently before the people of the world. A poem, entitled "Men of Ireland," was read, and other speeches followed, in which the leading features of the movement were discussed.

TWO MURDEROUS RUFFIANS CAPTURED.

TWO MURDEROUS RUFFIANS CAPTURED.

Officers Wali and Brannan, of the Sixteenth Precinct, Thursday night arrested, and yesterday took before Justice Smith, at the Jefferson Market Police Court, two villanous-looking men, who gave their names as Michael Lane, of No. 355 West Sixteenth-st., and Patrics & Tuney, of No. 436 West Eighteenth-st. They were called upon to answer charges of felonious assault and robbery. Thomas McNesins, of No. 432 West Seventeenth-st, said that warle waiking along Ninth-ave. Thursday night he was attacked by the prisoners, who were armed with loaded claps, knocked down and beaten in a terrible manner. His face showed evidence of the rough handling he had received. The men then left hum and broke into the butcher-shop of Thomas Van Housen, at No. 31 Ninth-ave., and stealing a large carving kni c and meat saw went in search of their victim, whom they had left prostrated on the sidewalk. McNealis, however, had started for the police station to inform the police of the assault. He was seen by Kerney, who drew a revolver and fired a shot at him.

Officers Breunan and Wall were detailed to arrest the men and had only left the station when they were met by John McCormick of No. 448 West Seventeenth-st, who told them that he had been waylaid by the same men, one of whom had discharged his revolver at him twice. While talking with McCormick, the officer heard a rap for assistance, and going to Ninth-ave., saw Officer Brennan directed his attention to the latter, whom he succeeded in overtaking at Tenth-ave. The fellow refused to go with the officer and it became necessary to club him into submission. The other officer captured Kerney at Pifteenth-st, the men separated, Kerney turning toward Eighth-ave, and Lane going westward. Officer Brennan directed his attention to the latter, whom he succeeded in overtaking at Tenth-ave. When taken to the station a loaded club was found on Lane and a revolver and the stolen carving-knife on Kerney. Shortly after their arrest John Clark, of No. 428 West Sevent

When arraigned in court the prisoners pleaded not guilty, but were both held in default of $2.500 to answer two charges of felonious assault and one of

FROM HIGH BRIDGE TO BREWSTER'S.

An excursion was made yesterday over the line of the New-York and Northern Railroad Company from High Bridge to Brewster's. The special trains started from the southern terminus of the road at noon, and reached the junction of the New-York and Harlem and the New-England Railways at Brewster's, a distance of fifty-one miles, on the schedule time of two hours and ten minutes. On the return trip a dinner was served at Thompson's Hotel, at Lake Mahopac. High Bridge was reached at 5:40 p. m. Among those who took part in the excursion were C. F. Woerishoffer, the president of the company; Samnel H. Everitt, formerly Assemblyman from Putnam County; H. R. Plant, president of the Southern Express Company; ex-Senator Corbett, of Orezon; W. H. Mooiverton, of the New-York Transter Company; A. S. Brown, Superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph Company; W. F. Allen; G. M. Bailey; William Allen Butler, Jr.; Judge J. G. Miller, of Carmel; Benjamin Odeli, S. D. Law; Carl Pfeifier, Lewis Roberts, R. Kent, Dr. J. H. Furman, W. L. Porter, E. H. Sly, Stantly H. Ray, Captain J. M. Ross, of Tarrytown: James B. Ford, A. S. Cooke and M. MeNally.

One object of the company is to connect with the elevated roads which terminate at High Bridge. The rolling stock has all of the latest improvements and the passenger coaches are finished in red cedar and French walnut. The road runs through a picturesque country. FROM HIGH BRIDGE TO BREWSTER'S.

INQUIRING INTO A MURDERER'S SANITY.

The commission appointed to inquire into the mental condition of Amadee B got, who mandered Mrs. Harriet Remailt August 11, beld its second session in the District-Attorney's office yesterday, Dr. Hardy, the Tombs physician, said that he had discovered in the prisoner signs of paralysis of the brains. Bigot always said in conversation that he was perfectly sane. Dr. William H. Owens, of No. 132 West Thirty-second-st., who was engaged at St. Vyncent's Hospital when Bigot was taken there, said that he had never seen anything in the prisoner to make him beheve that he was insane. Dr. James G. Keruan, of No. 144 Second-ave, stated that he had examined Bigot three times, and he did not regard him as a responsible person. Dr. Edward C. Spitzka thought that there were many indications that the prisoner was suffering from some cerebral disease, although he would not say that he was insane. Dr. Join C. Schapps, of No. 153 Ross-st., Brooklyn, attended Bigot at St. Vincent's Hospital last March, and also in August, after the marder. He said that the prisoner INQUIRING INTO A MURDERER'S SANITY.

KILLED ON THE TRACK.

If Soon after two trains, going in opposite directions, had passed the station at Mineola, L. L., I uesday night, Michael Leonard, while walking along the track on his way home, found a man lying near the track who was groaning and partly unconscieus. Leonard uses vered that the man's right leg had been completely severed at the knee and his head was resting on the severed leg. Dr. Skinner, of Mincola, was summened to attend the man, who had already lost a great quantity of blood. The sufferer was removed to a house near by where he died in a short time. He had evidently been on a ganning expedition, as he had a gun and game-bag with him. The Coroner wao took charge of the case has found that the name of the deceased man is Christopher Silkin, and that he lived at No. 235 Marcy-ave., Brooklyn. It has also been learned that Silkin went to Hicksyille to go out with some friends to shoot quail, and became separated from his companions and test his way.

CONCEALING A CASE OF SMALL-POX. CONCEALING A CASE OF SMALL-POX.

Maria Hilk, age ten, was found sick with smallpox yesterday at No. 184 Madison-st. Another case, that of a colored woman, was reported at No.
239 West Twenty-muth-st. The disease broke out there in a colony of negroes three weeks ago, and a strict watch was set upon the house and has been maintained since. Yesterday Dr. Morris, a physician of the vaccinating corps, found on his daily tour of inspection through the house a woman hidden under a heap of rags in a dark back-room.
To his questions she answered feebly that she was suffering from a billous attack, and her friends endeavored to persuade the physician to desist from deavored to personade the physician to desist from his purpose of examining her. When brought into the light of day she was found to be covered with the small-pox cruption. Despite her protests, she was sent to the hospital, as was also the girl from LEAVING THE GAS TURNED ON.

LEAVING THE GAS TURNED ON.

A middle-aged stranger demanded a room at the Putnam House, at Fourth-ave, and Twenty-sixthst., Thursday night, and registered as Thomas Coleman. He informed the clerk that he was from Fail River. Early in the morning he was found dead in his bed. The room was filled with gas, that had been left turned on, though not burning, during the night. The stranger appeared to be under the influence of liquor when he went to bis room. Some receipts from Fail River merchants for coal and household goods, and a receipt for money paid for a lot in a cemetery were found in his possession. They were made out to Thomas Coleman. In the afternoon information was received at the Coroner's office that Mr. Coleman was Alderman of the Fourth Ward, Fail River, Mass. His body was claimed by friends.

SENTENCED FOR MANSLAUGHTER.

John McMahon and John Nash, both young men, were recently jointly indicted for murder in the second degree in the killing of John Dorsey. They pleaded gailty to manslaughter in the third degree, and the plea was accepted by Assistant District-Attorney Bell, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, before Justice Brady, yesterday. Mr. Beil said that the difficulty with the cases was that the prosecution could not prove which of the two young men struck the fatal blow. The three men had been engaged in a small burglary on the night of September 22, 1880, and it was probable that, while quarrelling over the spoils, all of them being drinnk, the fatal blow was struck. Justice Brady said that, under the circumstances, it was proper to accept the plea, and he scutenced each of them to State Prison for two years and six months. SENTENCED FOR MANSLAUGHTER.

PLEURO-PNEUMONIA IN BROOKLYN. PLEURO-PNEUMONIA IN BROOKLYN.

Several cases of pleuro-pneumonta were found by the vetermary surgeons, who are inspecting cow stables under the direction of the Brooklyn Board of Health, in the stables of Philip Wackerman, No. 338 Maujer-st., that city. Of the fourteen cows kept there, ten were in an advanced stage of the disease. The stables were in a flithy condition and as they are close to fenement houses in a thicky inhabited part of the Sixteents Ward, the inspectors think that they should be closed. The mick sold from the cows is declared unfit for use.
